SCHOLARSHIP NEWS

For our Town & Gown Scholars Spotlight this month, I am pleased to introduce to you a wonderful scholar who will be graduating in May and if you will be attending commencement on May 13, you will be able to hear more from this young man as he has been named Valedictorian for USC!

Please welcome our scholar Adam Karelin. Congratulations Adam and we wish you the very best in your future endeavors.

Adam Karelin – Bachelors - USC Thornton School of Music
Major: Composition Minor: Linguistics

What is exciting and interesting, or currently challenging you, in your major field of study?

I am excited about the intersections and malleability of genre as the field of “classical” music slowly casts aside the aesthetic rigidity of its past century.

Describe clubs or other on campus activities in which you participate.

I am the music director of the Student Symphony Orchestra of USC, the only fully student-run symphony orchestra on campus.

Describe any work (paid or volunteer) or off campus associations in which you participate.

I tutor private students in English, music theory, and history. I have also served as a student ambassador for the Los Angeles Opera.

List and describe any internships you’ve had this past year.

I was awarded a conducting fellowship at the Aspen Music Festival and School.

List any recent travels - either for study abroad or other USC related opportunities.

I studied abroad in Helsinki, Finland at the Sibelius Academy in spring 2020 and traveled to Aspen in summer 2021 for a conducting fellowship.

Are you involved with any research at the moment? If so, please briefly describe that experience.

In fall 2021 I conducted interdisciplinary research on “Music as Language” through the linguistics department under the guidance of Professor Louis Goldstein. This research comparatively analyzes and tests existing hybrid music-linguistic descriptive models developed by Leonard Bernstein and the duo of Fred Lerdahl and Ray Jackendoff. This analysis will then inform this project’s proposed schema for analyzing the acoustics, syntax, and semantics of the world’s musics.

List any new information we should know about your current status, your involvement at USC, or your future plans.

I am a senior in my undergrad this year, and will graduate this May 2022.

Carol Wright
2nd Vice President, Scholarships

SPECIAL CONGRATULATIONS

On April 14, 2022 the USC Black Alumni Association awarded Wilma J. Pinder, Esq., '62 the Kilgore Service Award for selfless servant leadership to USC Black students and alumni, exemplifying the vision of our founder, Rev. Dr. Thomas Kilgore, Jr.

TOWN AND GOWN OF USC ANNUAL BENEFIT

Thank you making the Benefit 2022 an outstanding success! Through your generous contributions, we raised over $200,000 allowing us to continue supporting USC through scholarships for students, building and campus enhancements, and cultural programs.

On Tuesday, April 5, Town and Gown of USC hosted our annual Benefit at the beautiful Beverly Hills Hotel. This year's event featured our WOMEN OF VISION: Sally Edwards, Carol Fox, Linda Givvin, Carol Greenhalgh, Thelma Orr and Alli Solum. An endowed scholarship fund has been created in their names from the proceeds of this year's Benefit. This scholarship will preserve, in perpetuity, the legacy of these WOMEN OF VISION and their significant volunteer leadership, which led them to work together to create "The Agreement."

The Benefit was attended by over 400 Town and Gown of USC members and their friends. Upon entering the hotel, guests were greeted by our warm and friendly Registration Hosts, chaired by Kate Farlow and Janyce Teasley. Welcome Greeters, chaired by Kim Kaufman and Rondi Nuno were also on hand to guide our guests through the event festivities. Attendees strolled, sipped, and shopped the Vendor Boutique in the garden which featured both returning favorites and new merchants. Chaired by Ann Palmer, these vendors generously donated 20% of their proceeds back to Town and Gown of USC.

Our Cashier Co-Chairs Janeane Dimpel and Pat Whitman were hard at work with their committee to make sure that our guests could quickly buy their vendor items so they could get back to shopping the boutique and visiting with friends.

Entertainment was secured by Chair, Carol Kroesche, and everyone was delighted to hear the USC Thornton School of Music Trio stroll through the garden, and pianist Tomomi Sato play in the Crystal Foyer.

As a grand surprise, secured by Band Liaison Sandy Johnston and directed by Professor Jacob Vogel, 20 members of the USC Spirit of Troy Marching Band led our guests into the Ballroom. Upon entering, our guests were met with beautifully decorated tables adorned with elegant pink ranunculus, roses, and cherry blossom floral centerpieces, chaired by Charlotte Etmekjian. On each chair, guests received a gift bag of delicious Too Good To Share Toffee candy and a 20% off certificate for the Robert Ellis Boutique, thanks to Favors Chair, Christine Ofiesh. Each guest also received a copy of the wonderful Benefit Program, chaired by Sandy Johnston, Chris Gregg, and Ayuko Siegel.

Our outstanding and ever-joyful President, Hilary Crahan welcomed everyone to the Ballroom and the day's program began. As the Benefit Chair, I had the privilege of introducing Board member, Wilma J. Pinder, Esq. to lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance, followed by our Benefit Finance Chair/Secretary and Board member, Ayuko Siegel who announced our VIPs in the audience.

The Honoree Award Presentation was one of the highlights of the event. Past Presidents and Benefit Honorees, Sally Edwards, Carol Fox, Linda Givvin, Carol Greenhalgh, and Alli Solum were escorted to the runway by Dr. Tom Edwards, Chris Fox, Steve Yamaguchi, Peter Weil, and Michael Solum. Past President, Thelma Orr was not able to attend, but her son and grandson, John Orr and Will Orr presented on her behalf. Each Honoree was awarded with a Tommy Trojan statue in grateful appreciation of her teamwork work to create “The Agreement” fifteen years ago. We were proud to celebrate and hear from each of our WOMEN OF VISION. Please click here to view the video created to pay tribute to our Benefit Honorees. Many thanks to Ian Chestnut of IVC Productions, LLC who produced and directed this video, as well as developed and created website pages to highlight the Benefit.

The Benefit also featured a stunning fashion show from USC alum and supporter, Robert Ellis of the Robert Ellis Boutique. His fashions strike a winning combination between comfort and chic, with unique fashion looks from sportswear to ballgowns. Several of our guests wore chic, timeless, elegant fashions from his boutique.

Opportunity Drawing Chair extraordinaire, Sara Pfirrmann secured incredible prizes. Tickets and happy winners were chosen at the event. The list of lucky winners is included in this newsletter. Thanks to your generous ticket sales, we raised over $29,000 from the Opportunity Drawing.

Additional Benefit Chairs also made the event a tremendous success:

Carol Fox, Benefit Advisor

Carol Mollett, Patrons Chair

Kathie and Erica Johnson, Sponsorship Chairs

Valerie Weiss, Room Reservations Chair

Patti Jamgotchian, Public Relations Chair

Lisa Up De Graff, Communications Chair

We want to thank extremely organized Kari May, our Town and Gown of USC Executive Associate, who kept detailed records of the donations and RSVPs, and helped us on the day of the event. We also appreciate the talented Roxy Kimmel Szigat, of ROX INK Calligraphy & Graphic Design, who designed all the beautiful and themed graphics.

An event to remember, Kathleen Campos, our outstanding Photography Chair, worked with the talented photographer, Deidre Davidson of Davidson Photography to capture the day’s events.

Special thanks to the Honorees’ Photo Escorts, Paula Ciaramitaro, Chris Gregg, Patti Johnson, Kathie Johnson, and Laurie Hunter Tiedemann.

The fabulous pictures and fond memories will be featured in next month’s newsletter!

It was truly an incredible day for everyone. Thank you to all who participated in the event. We couldn’t have done it without you!

My sincere gratitude,

Edie Etmekjian

MORE NEWS FROM OUR BENEFIT CHAIRS

Program and Ad Co-Chairs: Sandy Johnston, Chris Gregg, and Ayuko Siegel

Due to the generosity of our members and USC departments as well as the allure of our 6 Honorees, it was very easy to sell out our program ads a few times while more paper was sought for our program books.

We had new templates and photos developed this year reflecting our light and lovely pink and green theme depicting our Beverly Hills Hotel site and included some new photos of our own Town and Gown of USC building.

We appreciate and thank all who purchased ads including but not limited to the Deans, Development officers, External Communications, Office of the President, Departments, Members, Friends, Businesses, Trojan Clubs including Guilds and Leagues, Athletics, Honorees, and family members of Honorees. Cheers and “Fight On”.

Benefit Cashier Chairs: Janeane Dimpel and Pat Whitman

We wish to acknowledge and thank all members of the Cashier Committee. Everyone worked together supporting one another for breaks and shopping. This year we had two new volunteers: Kelsey Buckner of Wells Fargo Bank and Emily Zhang of the Leventhal School of Accounting. The following members comprise the team who gave their all to assure a smooth and efficient check out system: Annemarie Acosta, Kelsey Buckner, Linda Dankwa, Garbis Etmekjian, Mary Hall, Judy Lieb, Cheryl Schwartz, Elliott Schwartz, Pat Whitman, Co-Chair, Dion Whitman, Kandi Wopschall and Emily Zhang.

Band Liaison: Sandy Johnston

All those present enjoyed the 15 minutes of great sounds and movements of our fantastic “Spirit of Troy” USC Trojan Marching Band. We’d like to thank all 20 of those who played for us at the Benefit, Jeff Collins, the band travel scheduler, Cynthia Wiese, Executive Assistant to the USC Band Director, and Professor Jake Vogel, Director of the Trojan Marching Band!

The band marched down 2 flights of stairs to an adoring crowd, and onto the runway in the Crystal Ballroom while people danced in the aisles, a thrilling and happy experience for all.

Thank you to USC School of Pharmacy for underwriting the band.

Opportunity Drawing Chair: Sara Pfirrmann

Thank you for your donations and ticket sales. A huge thank you to my team of volunteers: Bonnie Hodge, Carol Styx, Karen Guthorn and Karen Westland.

"I won two prizes, WOW! I couldn't be more excited and full of gratitude and thanksgiving! I have followed the path and plated down-home dishes of Ree Drummond, The Pioneer Woman, since 2011. With an open-heart and an open kitchen, she has demonstrated the potential and the possibilities that can be realized with the simple ingredients of life. She has shown me that it is possible to look out into an open horizon and blaze new trails with family, friends, and dogs in tow, and eat well while you do it! I admire how she has evolved and continues to reveal, "what can be" when you put your "cowgirl boots" to the ground. I'm thinking that I will pair my new pearls and Gucci scarf with a cowboy hat (and a soft spritz of my Joy perfume) to perfectly fit with Ree's "Cowboy Luxury" boutique hotel theme?!? I look forward to our experience together and being an envoy for T&G with Ree!!"

Debbie Miller won Prize #2 - USC Fight On: Trojan Football and Spirit Package

Debbie recently toured the USC campus with her daughter who is applying to USC next year. Debbie is on our scholarship committee.

Cheryl Kaufmann won Prize #15 - Visit Traveler at His Home

Cheryl is a parent of one of our current scholars. Paige Kaufmann is a freshman, plays in the band, and her birthday is coming up soon. Her mom said Paige will be crazy with excitement!!!
